Aid Program

services from the American continent. Europe's financial resources are running low.

By HAROLD KINGS
PARIS, Sept. 22.—(Reuters)—The 16 western European powers in a Marshall plan reply to be signed this afternoon, have their claim to United States aid on firm grounds to boost home production by 15 to 20 per cent in many cases.

CALLING FOR an "unprecedented peacetime effort of work" by their entire populations, the report states, "production efforts of the participating countries and western Europe will be concentrated on the key industries of food, steel, timber and transport."

Major targets in the national programs are:
Grain and milk: Restoration of pre-war production.
Super and potatoes: Large increase above pre-war.
Oils and fats: As fast an expansion as supplies of feeding stuffs will allow.
Coal: Increase of one-third above 1938.
Electricity: Output to be expanded by nearly 40 per cent above 1947 and generating capacity to be increased to two-thirds above 1938.

Oil refining: To be developed to the extent of the most supply.
Steel: Production to be 60 per cent above the 1947 level and over 20 per cent above 1948.
Inland transport: Load to be raised by 25 per cent above 1938.
Merchant shipping: National fleets to be restored to pre-war level.

"active outside help" to facilitate the success of the prison break apart from a hack saw blade found in one of the cells after the men escaped. The source of the blade has not been determined.

Warden K. M. Allen of the penitentiary had been away on sick leave from May 28 to the morning of Aug. 18, after the escape had taken place, and Deputy Warden Millard had been in charge of the prison and responsible for the administration during the 2½ months prior to the break.

Gen. Gibson said the circumstances of the escape and evidence taken during the inquiry disclosed "that laxity had developed in the manner in which the duties were being carried out, and particularly in the methods of searching for contraband materials."

"The possession by the convicts of the articles which assisted them in their escape—the hack saw blade, iron bar and ropes—clearly indicated that the searches carried out in the period prior to the escape had not been executed and supervised in an adequate manner, and that there was a lack of alertness on the part of some members of the staff."

"There was also evidence that recently-appointed officers had not been fully instructed in the proper methods of carrying out their duties."

"The success of this escape must be attributed to failure to maintain the high standard of vigilance and alertness on the part of some members of the staff, and particularly in the methods of searching for contraband materials."

sequences to which Mr. Vishinsky drew our attention.
MENEZ was particularly bitter when he referred to Vishinsky's attack upon Winston Churchill when the Russian deputy foreign minister put in a comparable bracket with Hitler.

He said Churchill's struggle against Hitler "will compare with that of any member of the communist party in the world," and added:
"Churchill walked about London streets, as an example to the population and to the world, unperturbed by bombs hurled down by German planes which, for all we were served at that time by Russian oil."

Referring to Vishinsky's attack on the United States, McNeill said:
"WHEN MR. VISHINSKY argued on Thursday . . . that his government was distressed and angered at the statements of individual Americans that Russia is preparing for war and was a warmonger, I would say that the reply is not to inspire any individual or to suppress American or British newspapers."

"The reply is to open the doors of Russia so that the nations, the people of those nations, who have great underlying sympathy with this new emerging power, can see the inside of Russia."

McNeill declared that Vishinsky had accused Britain of seeking to divide Europe because of her efforts to implement the Marshall plan.
"This is a monstrous accusation," McNeill declared. He added that Britain had devoted her complete strength toward co-operation, but had been blocked by Russia at every turn.

"WE HAVE been threatened and threatened by disingenuous and by a policy of non-co-operation. There is no necessity for us to be divided by political still less by territorial questions."

McNeill blamed the present critical world situation largely on what he called Russia's unwillingness to co-operate. As far as Russia was concerned, he said, "every attempt is being made to divide Europe into black and white; perhaps more correctly, in terms of black and red."

HE THEN DENIED Vishinsky's charges that the Marshall plan for economic aid to Europe had ended the sovereignty of any country, and accused Russia of obstructing atomic control and paralyzing the Security Council by her 20 vetoes.

Air Accidents

a veteran pilot skillfully crash-landed a four-engine Pan American Clipper carrying 41 passengers and crew members. The pilot, Capt. Carl W. Gregg, skidded the plane down a runway at Floyd Bennett airport in Brooklyn. All aboard escaped injury.

The Clipper en route from Bermuda, developed trouble 30 miles from New York when two of its engines went dead.
Another plane accident in which a heavy death toll was avoided occurred early Saturday during a storm in the Philippines. A transport plane, carrying 27 United States army airmen, became lost in thick darkness over northern Luzon and ran out of gas. The air men bailed out. Twenty-five were found safe, one was killed and one still was missing.

Caps Edge Maple Leaf Juniors 1-0

Paul Kirk sent an understaffed West End Caps football squad into action at Clarke Stadium to battle the Junior Maple Leafs. After a grueling sixty minutes the Caps, with many a rub on the bench, finished in front 1-0.

They GOT the only point of the game in the second quarter. On a third down on the Leaf 40 yard strip George Golden got away a long kick which Deputy South Maple Leaf halfback, scoured up back of his own side. Ed Bobsy, Caps end, kicked through to the right and Smith and score what proved to be the winning point.

Despite their lack of reserve strength the Caps outlasted the play. Newt Kimball, Jack Houtchard, Del Pettigrew and Collins, backed the intermediaries in their fourth victory of the current season over the Ochsler. The Leafs, who were out of the game for the first time since they were defeated by the Caps last week, suffered injuries which will sideline them from their action this fall. Melnychuk came up with a broken hand, while Findlay absorbed punishment to the extent of a broken collar bone.

The injury situation was worsened by Paul Kirk's crew. Quarterback Tommy Maynard suffered a separated shoulder last week and Grant Debraine came up lame with a strained ankle in a recent work out. Yesterday his Del Pettigrew, halfback, was hit, hobbled off with a bad knee.

Flyers Commence Serious Conditioning for Season's Opener

Twenty-nine players were out Sunday morning as the Edmonton Flyers put in their first season of serious training for the 1947-48 season under Coach Frank Currie. Two of the five from training left out as units are shown in the above action pictures. ## 2 Cracks See Bob Locke Crack a Fair's Par

Carves Out 68 Despite "Cold" Putting Touch

Bobby Locke, a great golfer with a winning personality, is winging his way toward Cleveland today after conquering Edmonton's long, bunker-riddled Mayfair course for the second straight time, yesterday afternoon.

While 2500 Edmonton golf lovers looked on, the South African wizard carved out a neat 68, two under par, to add to his 66 of Friday afternoon in Calgary on Saturday. He finished 130 on the Golf and Country Club with a fine exhibition and even par 70 figure. He was two under par coming home in the fourth hole, but bogied the last two holes.

ALTHOUGH his golf didn't reach the brilliant heights of his first match when he could easily find his 68 or 64, he won the admiration of the 2500 gathered with his phenomenal control from tee to green.

His putter, which he is using as the weather and he only got one down for a birdie on the first nine in eight chances.

Partnered with Ted West, Mayfair's club professional, Locke defeated the Alberta team in the last nine to defeat Harry Martell and Pete Olynk 3 and 2.

The greens were in a stink but Olynk and West had even more trouble than Locke getting into the Alberta clubhouse.

BEFORE he was mobbed by the hundreds who had gathered to see the 1918 green, Bobby paid a glowing tribute to the Alberta golfers who had made the Mayfair course a success.

He also paid a compliment to the marshals who had a hard afternoon's work keeping the onlookers at a safe distance, and Referee Alec Munro.

"I'LL BE BACK next year if I can," he said, "and I hope you will all have a merry Christmas and a happy New Year."

Thousands Honor "Little Flower"

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—(AP)—The people of New York who followed the body of the late Sister Mary Thérèse of Lisieux, known as the "Little Flower," to the cemetery of the Holy Family, paid tribute to the memory of the "Little Flower."

Thousands streamed past his body in the chapel of St. James in the cathedral of St. John the Divine, where funeral services will be held Monday.

A negro woman, sobbing "your Mayor La Guardia, he's gone," dropped a solitary red rose on the coffin as he passed.

The Polish minister of foreign affairs sent a floral offering reading "in memory of a great fighter for peace and international friendship."

LONDON, Sept. 22.—(Reuters)—Prime Minister Attlee and Foreign Minister Bevin have sent messages of sympathy to Mrs. Fiorelli La Guardia on the death of her husband.

Two P.F. Regiments Parade in City

In one of the largest parades witnessed here since the end of the war, the two of the most famous Canadian regiments, Lord Strathcona's Horse, and Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, paraded through the city late Saturday afternoon.

More than 500 officers and men, and 100 vehicles were on parade, and thousands of Edmontonians crowded the route.

The two regiments, on their way to Vancouver military camp for two weeks of concentrated training, arrived in the city about 10 p.m. Saturday afternoon and formed up between 90 and 100 avenue on 107 street.

They marched north on 107 street in Jasper Avenue, and then to 140 street, turning south to 100 avenue.

Marching east along 100 avenue the parade gave eyes left, while passing the cathedral.

On 101 street the parade went north across Jasper, and continued to the saluting line, located at Woodward's.

Taking the salute was Maj.-Gen. F. W. Worthington, CBE, MC, MBE, ED, who retires from the Canadian Army at the end of the month.

Also on the parade were Lt.-Col. R. L. Snow, Lt.-Col. George W. Keane, DSO, and Capt. Charles Short, who was on the stand.

The parade, ten blocks long, continued north to 107 avenue, then west to 104 street, north to the Prince of Wales Hotel, and then west to 100 avenue.

The parade was under the command of Lt.-Col. A. G. Chubb, DSO, commanding officer of the Lord Strathcona's Horse.

The group left early Sunday for Vancouver camp.

Farm Federation To Map Program

KELOWNA, B.C., Sept. 22.—(CP)—The part Canada will play in feeding hungry people of the world is expected to be one of the high points of the discussion at a convention under way here tomorrow when directors of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture meet in three-day convention.

Over Russia Objections UN Overhaul Plan Going To Assembly

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Despite vigorous Russian opposition, a United Nations steering committee dealing with the agenda for the general assembly Sunday sent along to the Assembly a United States proposal for remodelling UN the vote, by 12 to 2 with Poland and Russia opposed, came and a renewal of the Russian's attack on the American delegation.

At the meeting at Lake Success, N.Y., Andrei Gromyko of Russia fought the United States plan for a "Little Assembly" contending it violated the UN charter and was an attempt by the United States to dominate the security council in which the big five vote equally.

Under the American proposal a permanent committee of the powers would remain in session to take up matters of peace and security and have the power to convene the full assembly whenever there is no veto, to deal immediately with any pressing issue.

The UNITED STATES has announced that it favors creation of a special committee to study the veto.

Warren R. Austin, United States delegate, told Gromyko that the United States "is not the whole United Nations" and said the coun-

Battle of Policy For U.K. Tories

BY JAMES MCCOOK
LONDON, Sept. 22.—(CP)—The agenda for the approaching Conservative convention indicates that 1,000 delegates at Brighton from Oct. 2 to Oct. 4, will be a dagger-drawn battle between the old brigade and the new.

The younger element in the party is restless. They complain that the older section has been too slow to move to victory over Socialism, and they are out of date.

The issue may well be decided during debate on the industrial charter. This declaration of the party's attitude to industry was drafted by a committee under progressive R. A. Butler, former education minister. This is practically the only Conservative policy outlined in detail at the time when many party organizers say they need more than the conclusion of the Labor government to win voters to their side.

The agenda has 28 resolutions on the industrial charter, most of them approving. Those who approve the charter, thereby agree that the party's attitude to industry was drafted by a committee under progressive R. A. Butler, former education minister. ## Comic Princes

Johnny Wayne and Frank Shuster have returned to the air with their comedy program from Toronto and bearing them takes my mind back to the small and crowded ward of an Army hospital in England in the last year of the war.

A temporary stage has been built on one end of the narrow room. On it Johnny and Frank and their company of entertainers made their debut and their monologue. I remember looking out into the audience, half illuminated in the light of the stage, many of the men amputation cases with an empty arm or leg in the hospital "bunks."

The room held an awful load of pain, but in the warmth of the laughter and the rhythm it seemed to be forgotten.

In one way or another Johnny and Frank eased a lot of pain in their career overseas and perhaps of all the wartime entertainers, in and out of uniform, they will be best remembered when we begin to look at the war in some perspective.

Hearing them on the air the other night, the established stars of a slick and highly professional show, I was reminded of a long-standing promise to myself to tip a hat in their direction. They don't particularly need any more now. They are the hottest things in Canada radio, almost certain to make that inevitable move south of the border.

Let's follow them in their direction, however, it is not merely to two great entertainers, but to a pair of the nicest guys you could ever come to meet. If you'll pardon an old expression.

The Joke

Wayne and Shuster, as perhaps you know, write their own material, which is just about as funny as anything on the air today. What's more, they're surprisingly literate and intelligent people, with only the slightly loquacious brain of born comedians.

I recall, for instance, a sightseeing trip that Shuster and I made through Windsor, Canada, in the course of the tour, our guide pointed out a place in the great wall where an ancient guard had carved his initials some 12 feet above the ground.

This incident, fact was filed and forgotten, as far as I was concerned. Not with Shuster. When I last saw him, he was still talking about that carving and musing, historical figure of a man who had put his mark there. What Shuster so earnestly wanted to know was whether the guard was, in truth, a giant or if he had just been incredibly long arms.

Johnny, too, had sighted laughter in the material that always made life so interesting in his vicinity. His sense of comedy, for example, was as much as his ability to deliver it. In that queer business and yet he has a love affair with the word "joke" that amounted almost to a grand passion.

One of the skills of a show they were doing in Northwest Europe and Wayne played a part as a western sheriff. In the course of the act, a messenger rides up with a note. Wayne surveys the rider with a look of interest and utter bewilderment.

"Well, I didn't know that," he says with an air of pleased amazement. "What that sheriff? Some obliging fellow would say 'Hello' to me. 'I can't read,' the sheriff would announce."

Johnny always put so much emotion into the joke that it was greeted with warm laughter and derision and glee and he would look out over the audience with almost idiotic happiness and loved that homeless little joke. It was his private me as it popped up on some radio show.

Like most people of real talent, both Shuster and Wayne are deep by sentimentality. Of all the soldiers I've encountered, they were the most completely, hopelessly, home-sick of any.

Frank once confided to me that he and Johnny not only had the best pictures of their wives, but they had negatives of the pictures, and had new sets printed as the prints were out from Glimming.

A Long Grind

They are getting their first real fame now through radio, but it might have come long ago. If the Army Show had played in London. The original plan was to make a tour of the United States, but that had been cancelled. The show that had toured Canada (the greatest all-Canadian show ever put together) was split up into a half-dozen small units and sent to play wherever there were Canadian troops.

Johnny and Frank were as disappointed as anyone in the fact that they couldn't play an evening show in London. They were going home trouper and in the long and pretty much routine of doing army shows they put just as much into their work as if it were their own, a commendable performance.

I remember them particularly that night in the converted ward of the hospital, because it was a heart-breaking audience with many young men crippled for life. There had just never been a show like it before and I don't suppose Shuster and Wayne will ever give a performance like it again. When the microphone was closed after a dozen or more encores I went backstage and found the two gals, cockade show men... with tears in their eyes.

Cafe Men Are Told Good Service Pays

Good service, good food and able waitresses will ring the cash registers of Canadian restaurant operators better than any other method, President Earl R. Nichols told about 100 delegates to an Edmonton district conference of the Canadian Restaurant Association in the Macdonald hotel Monday.

The one-day conference started at 10 a.m. with Harold E. Merrick, Edmonton branch president, in the chair.

Mr. Nichols stressed the fact that the association is not after just any kind of membership but will admit only restaurant operators anxious to comply with the high standards set.

He pointed out that a high standard in Canadian eating places would help the nation maintain its position in the tourist trade, that he described as one of "Canada's pride prizes."

An open discussion on such topics as costs, labor relations and kitchen problems was to conclude the business session.

The conference was to wind up with a banquet at 7:30 p.m. Monday. The guest speaker at the banquet was to be Dan K. Campbell, provincial director of tourist publicity.

Tourist Business

The tourist business as it affects the entire economy of Canada will form the main topic of a heart-breaking audience with many young men crippled for life. ## Former Resident Visits Edmonton

Manager of the Imperial Oil Ltd. in Edmonton, and a president of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce, prior to his retirement to take up residence in Victoria 10 years ago, Frank Turley, is a visitor here. Mr. Turley is visiting old friends in the city since his departure and great satisfaction in the oil discoveries close to Edmonton.

The cars will be stripped of their armatures, gears, and electrical wiring. That equipment will be used on the remaining cars kept in service pending the completion of the conversion to trolley bus operation.

Mr. Ferrier stated there was no demand for street cars in running condition, as the trend throughout the northern American continent is to trolley buses.

Most of the cars being dismantled were purchased by the city in 1936.

Wages of restaurant employees are as high as on a comparable basis in all other industries, he said.

The war brought a great dislocation in restaurant help situation. Planned courses for restaurant help have been instituted in Eastern Canada and will likely be introduced in the west soon, Mr. Nichols concluded.

Warmer Weather Will Aid Harvest

A few days of such bright, warm weather as that of today will mean that threshing and cutting operations in Central and Northern Alberta will get under way again, according to R. M. Putnam, director of extension, department of agriculture.

When the province probably has been seriously affected by the wet weather, Mr. Putnam said, one grain is likely to blanch and start rotting under the damp conditions which have been prevailing.

First, too, will have affected storage grain, although it will not make any difference to the part of the crop which has been cut.

WHAT TO DO IN ORDER TO WIN A PRIZE DESCRIPTION OF CONTEST

1. Beginning Saturday, September 20, 1947, one drawing will appear each day in The Edmonton Bulletin. This drawing will represent a town, village or place in Alberta.
2. Lists will be published in the paper underneath the contest drawings giving the names of places from which the drawings will be selected, and it will not be necessary to use maps or an atlas in connection with the contest. The published lists are all that is required, and you are strongly recommended to cut out these lists each day and keep them, together with the puzzles, as they will be found very helpful in solving the puzzles.
3. Clues will be contained in each drawing as to the correct answer. These clues may consist of phonetical spelling of the name of the place, a situation depicted in the picture which suggests either part or whole of the place, or some other indication which will help in solving the answer.
4. The correct answers will be easy to find if you follow the clues, but study each puzzle carefully. Do not try and make an easy answer difficult, but on the other hand, each picture should be carefully studied so that you will not miss any indications in it which point to the correct answer.
5. All drawings are intended to test your skill and ingenuity, and not to try and trick you.
6. The contest will be divided into two classes, namely adults, and children under fourteen years of age. Each class will be judged separately, and different prizes awarded in each class. Children naturally, will not be expected to solve all of the puzzles, and for this reason, they have their own class where they are not in unfair competition with adults. Children under fourteen years of age will not be eligible for prizes in the adult class, and of course, adults will not be eligible for prizes in the class for children.
7. Adults and children will be allowed to submit as many entries as they wish so long as each entry is accompanied by a complete set of puzzle drawings or reasonable facsimiles of same. Please pay particular attention to notice on this page headed "Shortage of Paper".
8. Full details of how to send in your entries will be published at the end of the contest. All puzzles must be held until last time and not forwarded to The Bulletin office until requested to do so. Entries received at this office before the official date for sending them in will be disqualified.
9. Lists of the names of the cities, towns or places from which the drawings will be selected will be printed each day until the list is exhausted. Approximately thirty lists will be published. These lists will be numbered, and you are strongly recommended to retain these lists with your puzzles as most of the puzzles will indicate what list or lists the correct answer may be found in.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Any person, by entering this contest, agrees and understands that it is a contest of individual effort and that the buying or exchanging of answers automatically disqualifies each contestant from winning a prize.

Any adult contestant, as a condition precedent to being awarded a prize, will be required to sign and execute under oath an affidavit attesting that he or she has not bought or exchanged answers to the contest.

Children will be requested to execute a similar instrument but not under oath.

Each contestant agrees to accept as final the decision of The Edmonton Bulletin on all matters affecting the contest, including the judging of answers, the establishment of time limitations, disqualification for any cause deemed necessary, the interpretation of these rules and any regulations that may be announced by the officials of this contest. No answers will be returned.

Entries that are unsigned or illegible will not be considered, nor will The Edmonton Bulletin be responsible for entries or communications lost or unduly delayed in the mails.

Tax Dodgers Worried

Aussies Plan Battle On Bank Note Hoarding

By Leslie Brindle

SYDNEY, Australia, Sept. 22.—(CP)—Australia's great army of banknote hoarders, blackmarketers and tax-dodgers have become panicky over reports that the federal government might consider a plan to call in its present banknote issue.

A report that a number of members of the House of Representatives intended to introduce the subject formally in the house was sufficient to start a sudden rush of tax-dodgers to buy up all Australian notes.

Dealers in high class furniture, antiques, expensive furs, and diamonds said they were being besieged by nervous buyers, their money only to convert hoarded money into "hard" security.

The furniture salesman told the Canadian Press most of these new customers insisted on paying cash, and arranging their own method of delivery. In all such cases the dealer had "a musty smell," he said.

Prime Minister Chifley has declared that the government intends changing the note issue, but says a move has the support of the public who claim it would free tax-dodgers, help wipe out black-marketing and bring back the lost $100 million ($200 million) back into the federal treasury.

Although no campaign has started, the mere mention of the plan has been responsible for bringing in half a million pounds of sterling in the past few days.

Members of parliament are concerned about the amount of "dead money" hoarded by people, through "profitless and cheating" deals out the war.

A new note issue is the only way to trap these people and get at this which is a drain on the economy, one member said.

Income-tax inspectors have been engaged in a relentless war on tax evaders and in recent months have discovered huge hoards stored in unusual places.

Recovers Ring

TORONTO, Sept. 22.—(CP)—People who saw it lying on the road way probably thought it frayed, but the diamond ring Miss Peter Stille dropped in front of theatre in adjacent Forest Hill Saturday night was the real thing. Mrs. Stille went back to the spot Sunday morning and found it on the roadway, four inches from the curb.

Mark 7th Anniversary Battle of Britain

The Battle of Britain was an epic of gallantry at a time when the "impossible" had to be achieved, the Rev. RCAF chaplain, North West Air Command, told RCAF personnel attending a commemorative service in First Presbyterian Church Sunday morning.

A Roman Catholic service commemorating the air battle, those who made the supreme sacrifice and the living veterans who played a part in defeating the Luftwaffe, was held at St. Joseph's Cathedral, St. John's, A. J. E. Leveque, parish priest, officiated. The service was in charge of the service.

In his address, Mr. Dunn said that the battle was due to those who engaged in the tremendous struggle, and especially to those who died in battle.

Mr. Dunn said that the battle was a victory for the British, and that it was a victory for the British.

Wolves Attack, Kill 700-Pound Steer

District residents were still talking today about the wolf killing a year-and-a-half old steer weighing 700 pounds on Big Black 100 and Creek, 18 miles west of Calgary, which was witnessed by Mayor J. R. Harty and William P. Allen, of Brentwood. Longtime residents of the district and local game warden have known wolves to attack sheep and lambs when deer are scarce but can recall no previous occasion when the animals have killed anything the size of the steer.

After an accident Thursday Jan. 24, the steering apparatus in sport sedan and parked safely in a garage, driving his vehicle while his mechanical knowledge was to trust. A fine of $10 and costs, and 14 days imprisonment was imposed.

The accident occurred at 25 avenue and 85 Street when the accused driver, his vehicle into a ditch, and his car, which was 855-54 Road. The car suffered a bruised right fender.

British Fascist Leader Arrested

By MICHAEL O'SHARA

LONDON, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Arrest of his leader Jeffrey Hann Sunday climaxed a meeting of which League of Nations—self declared fascists—in a duty side street in London's crowded East End.

Hann, charged with using insulting words and behavior, was released on bail of £5 (120) and was to appear in police court Monday.

From the roof of a truck lined with a public address system, he had harangued a crowd estimated to be in excess of 2,000, continuing the League campaign of reviling the Jews and advocating British for the British.

The crowd heard Hann a woman Jack draped around his shoulders, and his voice rising to a hysterical shout, declare in reference to a recent provision of legal action by the British.
